

ENTER TO WIN OUR GLOBAL EDUCATION AWARD

GLOBAL EXPRESSION AND THOUGHT (GET) PRIZE

Submit student and faculty work to compete for our four GET Prizes. Four prizes, each of $333, will be awarded: two for students, and two for faculty.

CATEGORIES FOR THE 2021-22 GET PRIZE

Student Prizes

Student submissions are written work that involve cross-cultural examination and/or reflection in one of the following categories:

Global Self-Discovery Reflection: a personal reflection on an experience of intercultural resonance. These pieces would describe how an experience of virtual, local, national, and/or global interconnection impacted the student's worldview and sense of self and place.

Global Thought Piece: an analytical and/or persuasive piece on a topic of international significance. These pieces would articulate thoughtful analysis and/or to defend a particular stance on a topic/issue of local, national, or global significance.

Written pieces should not exceed 750 words. Each prize is awarded to an individual student.

Faculty Prizes

Faculty submissions are lessons/units/projects that educate for global competence. Additional details can be found at geb.org.

The due date for GET Prize submissions is February 11, 2022. GET Prize entries are to be submitted by the school's Global Coordinator on behalf of the student or educator, with no more than 2 entries per division.

See additional criteria, examples, and submission guidelines at www.gebg.org.
